RIBAJ

The RIBA Journal magazine is the most valued RIBA membership benefit according to our annual member survey. It is designed to be collectible and consumer-able; to appeal equally to the head and the heart. The heart is served by much-expanded 'Buildings' coverage at the front of the magazine and a 'Culture' section in the final third. The head benefits from our noted technical and practice section, 'Intelligence', now a registered RIBA CPD provider. This is right at the heart of the magazine.

All this is presented in a striking and elegant design, in a wider format, with better quality paper, photography and printing.

Inside you will find plenty of buildings, covered in a wide variety of ways, with prominence and clarity of drawings; unrivalled technical coverage and a fresh approach to presenting practice and business information.

Investment in our multimedia portfolio continues - we now have double the amount of digital content available online to that in the monthly print magazine including 10,000 articles and multimedia assets on industry intelligence, building studies, photos, drawings and daily stories available at RIBAJ.com

RIBAJ.com is now uniquely positioned to identify with the day-to-day life of the architect. We seek to equip architects with a mix of useful, valuable and inspiring created and curated content.

Architects crave quality content. We are offering a package to reflect that, ensuring your campaign can generate a greater return on investment.

PiP

Launched in 2013, and redesigned with the Journal, PiP (Products in Practice) is our technical supplement produced 6 times a year for our UK readers. PiP looks at the new projects, products, and innovations that are shaping the construction world.

J

'The RIBA Journal manages to effortlessly balance a brilliant span of diverse opinion, expert advice and good old-fashioned architectural criticism in a way that most architectural periodicals no longer manage to do.'

Deborah Saunt, founding partner DSDHA and director of inter-practice at the London School of Architecture

'The RIBA J reminds us that there is always a context to architecture. Be it cultural, technical, social, political or organisational, knowledge is critical for understanding how to find your place in this context. RIBA J is an essential tool for navigating these increasingly complex influences.'

Sarah Wigglesworth MBE RDI, founder of Sarah Wigglesworth architects and former professor of architecture at University of Sheffield

'In a world soaked in dubious digital information, architects are lucky to have the thoughtful commentary of the RIBA J. It is both attractive visually but, more importantly, deals with issues of the day that affect architects in an even handed way.'

Neil Spiller, Editor, Architectural Design and former-Hawksmoor Chair of Architecture and Landscape, University of Greenwich

'I find the RIBA J extremely informative, enjoyable to read and current. Compared to other architectural magazines/ journals the RIBA J is great at offering a broad range of topics, which are thoroughly written.'

Hannah Durham, partner, Cullinan Studio and member of the RIBA J 'Litmus Group' reader panel
